

www.westernfrontassociation.com
www.wfa-eastcoast.org

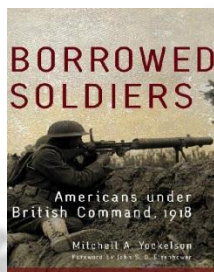

The WFA East Coast Branch Presents:

The Spring 2012 World War I History Symposium! Saturday May 12 – York County Heritage Trust, York, PA

Join Us For An Exciting Day-Long Program Featuring Discussions, Displays and The Following World War I History Presentations:

“Borrowed Soldiers” Historian and professional archivist Mitch Yockelson tells the engrossing and largely untold story of American troops who fought under British command on the Western Front.

“The Roosevelts At War” Spanish-American War hero and former President Teddy Roosevelt was an early and vocal advocate for America’s entry into World War I. During the war, TR’s entire family served the country in some way, and his four sons, courageous and daring to a fault, paid a high price for their involvement. Presented by WFA East Coast’s Genna Rollins.

“This is what Gives Men Grit’: Pennsylvania’s 28th Division at Apremont” The 28th Division’s heroic defense of the French town of Apremont in the Meuse-Argonne from 28 September to 1 October 1918 was one of the most exciting and remarkable episodes of World War I. Presented by historian Dr. Ed Lengel of the University of Virginia.

“A Recreation of Wings” Aviation artist, historian and pilot Mike O’Neal presents a fascinating behind-the-scenes view of the WWI flying replica aircraft operated by Pennsylvania’s Golden Age Air Museum. From construction planning to test-flights, follow the builds and historical back stories of the museum’s Sopwith Pup, Curtiss Jenny, Rumpler C.V., SPAD and Fokker Triplane.

“Collecting Postcards From World War I” Postcards were at their height in the 1910s, so the documentation of The Great War was thorough – from home front to the trenches. Collecting these items is an inexpensive way to own a piece of this heritage, and they become more poignant when there is a message mailed home from a soldier at the front. WFA East Coast’s Paul Petersen leads this exciting exploration of WWI’s visual record.

The symposium will also feature refreshments, displays, door prizes and the opportunity to tour the YCHT’s exhibit “Front Porch to Front Lines – York County Goes to War”

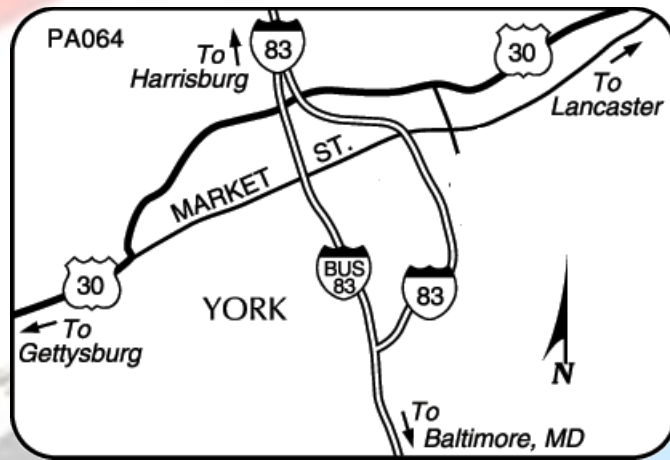

When: Saturday 12 May 2012. Refreshments, meet-and-greet begin at 8:30AM with Opening Remarks at 9:30AM. Seminar concluding time approximately 4:30 PM.

Where: The York County Heritage Trust, 250 E. Market Street, York, PA 17403
717.848.1587

Cost: Seminar cost is free, courtesy of YCHT. There is an optional cold-cut buffet luncheon at $10 per person.

Parking: Ample free street parking is available surrounding the Heritage Trust. There is also a parking garage located on Market Street near the intersection with Duke Street (approximately 2 blocks west of YCHT). For a map of parking garages consult: <http://yorkcity.org/parking-garages>

Directions: Please consult map resources for the best specific route to York, PA from your locality. From Route 30 in York, take N. George Street into downtown York. Turn left in the square of York onto E. Market Street. Go about 2 1/2 blocks and the Museum will be on your right.

Registration Form (detach and return)

Name (s) _____

Email: _____ Phone: _____

Optional Buffet Lunch : $10.00 per person – amount enclosed: _____
Please make checks payable to "WFA East Coast"

Mail your registration to: WFA East Coast Branch
1805 W. Joppa Rd.
Towson, MD 21204

The mail-in registration deadline is Monday 7 May 2012. Please note that seating is limited and so pre-registration is advisable. If you miss the mail-in deadline, please contact Branch Chairman Paul Cora: pbcora@earthlink.net